New digital recording to benefit music education

Maestro Robert Nance: Solitude

Debut of new solo recording in the Attitudes series

November 30, 2009 – Fort Wayne. Maestro Robert Nance announces the release of the first of four recordings in a series entitled Attitudes. The first recording is called Solitude and features classical selections and jazz arrangements for solo piano. An original composition is also featured on the album. All proceeds from the sale of the recording benefit the choral music education programs of the Heartland Chamber Chorale, the region's professional vocal ensemble. Maestro Nance is the founding artistic director of the HCC.

#####

The Heartland Chamber Chorale is an independent, professional vocal ensemble-in-residence on the campus of the University of Saint Francis in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Now presenting outstanding vocal music performances in its 12th season, the 26-member Heartland Chamber Chorale is Northern Indiana's only professional chorus. Founded by Artistic Director Robert Nance, the Heartland Chamber Chorale performs in and around Fort Wayne throughout the year. The HCC also engages promising young vocalists through educational outreach programs like our Side-by-Side in Song and Project Sing! initiatives. The purpose of the Heartland Chamber Chorale is to perform high quality choral chamber music to enrich audiences in the Fort Wayne community, Northeast Indiana, and beyond, with a goal to serve as a professional resource to the community for matters pertaining to the art of chamber vocal music.

The Heartland Chamber Chorale is a non-profit 501c3 organization and is funded in part through grants from Arts United (a local agency), the Indiana Arts Commission (a state agency), and the National Endowment for the Arts (a federal agency). For additional information, including current performance schedule, please visit our website at www.heartlandchorale.org or call the HCC office at 260.436.8080.
