Heartland Sings: We are the Dream

Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Concert features Heartland Chamber Chorale, Guest Artist Carver Cossey and choirs from around the Fort Wayne community including Pilgrim Baptist Church, Temple Achduth Vesholom Hazemir Choir, University Singers of Saint Francis and HCC Side-by-Side Choir

January 5, 2010 – Fort Wayne, IN. On Sunday, January 17, 2010 in the University of Saint Francis North Campus Auditorium at 4:00PM, choirs from around the community gather to celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King in a festival of song designed to bring his vision alive for today. Hosted by the Heartland Chamber Chorale, and featuring guest artist Carver Cossey, an internationally acclaimed bass-baritone soloist from Los Angeles and Indiana native, along with choirs from Pilgrim Baptist Church, Temple Achduth Vesholom and the University of Saint Francis. This will be an occasion to show your support for Dr. King's vision and join with members of the Fort Wayne community in affirming that support. This free concert is part of Heartland Chamber Chorale's community outreach program, fulfilling its mission to change lives through song.

The University of Saint Francis North Campus Auditorium is located at 2702 Spring Street in Fort Wayne, across the street from the University's Bass Mansion. Ample parking is available in front and at the rear of the building with handicap accessibility throughout the auditorium.

Now presenting outstanding vocal music performances in its thirteenth season, the 26-member Heartland Chamber Chorale is Northern Indiana's only professional chorus. Founded by Artistic Director Robert Nance, the Heartland Chamber Chorale performs in and around Fort Wayne throughout the year. The HCC also engages promising young vocalists through educational outreach programs like our Side-by-Side in Song and Project Sing! initiatives. The purpose of the Heartland Chamber Chorale is to perform high quality choral chamber music to enrich audiences in the Fort Wayne community, Northeast Indiana, and beyond, with a goal to serve as a professional resource to the community for matters pertaining to the art of chamber vocal music.

The Heartland Chamber Chorale is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization and is funded in part through gifts from Arts United (a local agency), the Indiana Arts Commission (a state agency), and the National Endowment for the Arts (a federal agency). Additional funding is provided by HCC Member-Supporters, the English Bonter Mitchell Foundation, Target Foundation, the Wilson Foundation, and the Lincoln Financial Group Foundation.
